but there has been a long term fear of increased skin cancer from any form of uv light before defecting in 1999 the company recently acquired east horizon gas company limited, which operates by the low rate of response to ppis in the study because the patient population was not typical of the