at present, all that stands between avian flu and pandemic status is the fact that scientists do not believe avian flu can be transmitted between humans the normal incidence of ectopic pregnancy is about 1-2 a significantly larger percentage of patients treated with rifaximin reported adequate relief of global ibs symptoms (52 vs